Our Bulletins are snapshots of Districts and their performance in sectors I AM AWARE focuses on (Education, Health, Roads, Agriculture, Security, Water And Sanitation). The Bulletins are useful as a dissemination tool. They facilitate the dissemination of information via media channels such as, radio, television and social media. Each Bulletin is produced by ranking proportions of observations of each of these indicators in order to ensure conformity and take note of variances such as demographics.

NOTES:

- There are 216 Districts In Ghana.
- Education is one of the sectors Considered under the 'I Am Aware' Project.

ABOUT 'I AM AWARE'

I AM AWARE is a non-partisan intervention that seeks to provide citizens with relevant information on the performance of duty bearers in order to allow them to objectively assess performance and demand accountability.

I AM AWARE collects, analyses, archives and disseminates user-friendly socio-economic data on the state of public goods and service delivery in Ghana to enable citizens hold duty bearers (including politicians and bureaucrats) accountable.

I AM AWARE is a Ghana Center for Democratic Development (CDD-Ghana)-led Public Awareness Campaign in collaboration with Ghana Anti-Corruption Coalition, Ghana Integrity Initiative, Women in Law and Development, Legal Resources Center, Metro TV, Citi FM and the Institute for Quantitative Social Science at Harvard University in the USA.

I AM AWARE is supported by the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, USA.
